WHAT IS THIS ABOUT?

If you've been familiar with Meyers-Briggs Typology in the past, CCTI® is the newest version that experientializes the formerly cognitive aspects of MBTI/. CCTI®: The Intelligence of Self is based on Jungian Typology and Voice Dialogue.

WHAT DOES THIS TRAINING OFFER YOU?

Learn a new language to open doors for clients, relationships, and Self through innovative processes of questioning and discovering.

- Discover in an intriguing way and gain confidence in hidden strengths beyond attitudes and behavioral aspects [e.g. extrovert, introvert, feeling, thinking, sensate, intuitive]
- Qualification of participants, with successful completion, to use the newest Jungian Typological Questionnaire, the CCTI®

Knowledge and tools to increase communication and connection in personal and professional/business work:

- Adaptive strategies and cognitive processes in innovative working with the psyche; automatic pilot, shadow side, aware ego
- Discovering hidden personality aspects. Understanding practical and fundamental 8 basic mental processes in combination with different selves.
- Insight and direction toward Authenticity of Self
- Descriptions of the 8 functions attitudes and Archetypal characteristics
- Mapping of the personality into recognizable selves and their position in dominance
- A practical map and compass to understand the functioning and development of the psyche-personality
- Enhancing the Aware Ego with acceptance of personality tensions in Self and others
- Adaptive strategies and cognitive processes using type dynamics

Before the workshop:

- You will be sent preparatory reading materials after you register

In the training you will receive

- A Comprehensive Binder of program materials to be used in the training and later.
- 60-page brochure "Type Portraits"
- Presentations; intellectual and experimental

TRAINERS BIOS

Geneviève Cailloux:
MA in applied Social Sciences, postgraduate studies in training and coaching.

Pierre Cauvin: PhD in sociology, MA in Political Sciences,
Therapist, Coach and
OD consultant;
Graduate from the Vanderbilt School of Management.

After her career in teaching and social services and his in management, they created their Osiris Conseil Consulting Company 1989. They are personal and organizational development consultants; they have introduced and developed the Type approach in France since 1985. They are authors of 5 foundational books and many brochures, papers, presentation on TV and radio. They are members of the Consilience group, an International Type experts team working on Type Dynamics.

They started the MBTI qualifying training in 1989 until they launched their own typological questionnaire in 2007, the CCTI®. (Cailloux-Cauvin Type Indicator.) They redesigned their training in accordance with Jung's work in Personality Types. Altogether, they have trained for qualification over 4000 HR Professionals. Together they are winners of the "Mary McCaulley Lifetime Achievement Award" for those who have made a significant contribution in encouraging the constructive use of differences identified by psychological type. (A course that received the European Quality award from the European Mentoring and Coaching Council. Accredited by the main European Coaching Association.) Also the European Quality Award from the European mentoring and coaching council.

As VDI (Voice Dialogue International) professionals they bring the CCTI® as a map or compass to Voice Dialogue facilitations. Their work becomes a living developmental process; taking one beyond most type models. Thus they work with compass and tools for developing wholeness and Aware Ego.

TESTIMONIALS AND STORIES

"The Intelligence of the Self (CCTI With Voice Dialogue) as its developmental path is a training of genius...I have absolute confidence that anyone taking this training will gain substantial benefits in all aspects of their personal and professional lives."

Paul Gale-Baker, Counselor/Therapist and Executive Coach Melbourne, Australia

"Pierre and Geneviève are passionate and seasoned teachers. Their use of "selves" and "types" is brilliant. ...The CCTI questionnaire gives validation to each person's way of 'the people who bug them.'"

LeAnne Dougherty, LCSW, DSW.

"The beauty of their work is to blend awareness of type preference with Voice Dialogue facilitation to help people recognize and experience their type preferences as expressed through selves and to identify and develop their undeveloped capacities. ...It gives a peek into a dimensions of one's 'Unique Psychic Fingerprint'."

J'aime Ona Pangia – Founder Voice Dialogue Center NW and International teacher.

"Their teaching was excellent and the material engaging. It was a very helpful and interesting complement to Voice Dialogue."

Rod & Brooks Newton, Co-founders of Hidden Springs Community Wellness Center Ashland, Oregon

"We explored our types, ENTJ and INTJ, individually and then our power struggles. We shared our results and together studied both our positive and negative relationship patterns. Having this common base of understanding stops us from veering onto slippery ground."

Stéphane and Laurent, founders of a biotechnology start up

"With my associate, the knowledge of our types allowed us to put objective words on our differences, to identify our complementarities, and overcome our misunderstandings. Thus it was easier to work through our frequent power struggles. All this allowed me to respect the time she needed to adapt when our company changed its corporate name."

Consultant Thomas, Ebony Consulting
